GOLIN go all in

Golin is part of a big PR organization. In London and San Francisco, they have also a digital team. During my internship at this great company, I have worked on many different projects with brands like Unilever, Oracle, EY and Delta Airlines. One of the projects I won't forget is the one I did for a big shaving brand. I designed a poster that appears on almost every London Underground station.

"Joey is highly motivated and he always challenges himself. He is easily approachable and everybody is very positive about his work. I am sad he is leaving after his internship period because his work is outstanding."
Hannalot van Bruggen, Digital Designer Golin

"I've worked with Joey throughout his time working at Golin in London. As a young designer don't under estimate Joey's design skills! He is very hard-working, passionate and eager to learn. I can always rely on Joey to meet the brief and deliver his best work. I'm excited for his future and wish him all the best. Good luck Joey!"
Jen Pang, Project Manager Golin

2014 - 2015
Dutch Public Broadcasting, Hilversum
Intern & Freelance Digital Designer

The Dutch Public Broadcasting is one of the main broadcasters in the Netherlands. During my time here I have worked on many different projects for the public radio stations. From classical until R&B, I have worked with many different music styles to design covers, events, and websites.

"Joey is an independent intern who always delivers quality design. His work is always pixel-perfect and he can handle feedback perfectly. His dedication and enthusiasm are huge. I wish Joey a lot of creative projects and great opportunities in the future."
